

These workers in Nash County are planting (setting) tobacco. They ride in the back of the tractor, pulling seedlings from trays that have been loaded from nearby nurseries. The machinery pulls each seedling from its hand-loaded mechanical transplanter and plants it in the ground.