

Bunch and muscadine grapes are commonly grown throughout North Carolina.

This painting was commissioned by Ryan and Sarah Hicks, Owners of Bin and Barrel Wine Bar in Rocky Mount, NC.

This is the only piece in the show without a bandana, however, the grape harvester's face remains hidden, reminding the viewer that unseen workers help produce the wine we enjoy. Bin and Barrel had a contest to name the grape harvester in the painting. He is now affectionately known as Lorenzo.

